"CHECK ENGINE" "SERVICE ENGINE SOON"

You've seen it before. The illuminated intruder. And now you're wondering if something is critical or is it simply an early warning to take action before things go bad. Should you receive one of these warnings/messages, it is wise to:

- Get your car home soon and don't drive more than necessary.
- Call us for advice as most 'fault' messages can easily be rectified.

Fact: Did you know that more than 25% of all 'engine check' faults are caused by loose gas caps? Remove your worries by addressing the situation early on. Lindsey Auto has factory-equivalent, diagnostic equipment for your car. The quicker you take action, costly and unnecessary repairs can be mitigated.
