You can trust us for the life of your car.

As part of the Bosch Service Network for over twenty-five years, Lindsey Automotive is your top, independent repair and service center. Inspected and evaluated frequently, a certified Bosch center must pass rigorous examinations so that very high standards are maintained and surpassed.

Being part of the Bosch family means that quality parts, diagnostics, wheel service equipment and other capabilities are ensured for all customers.

Reliable maintenance, expert repair and exemplary customer communication is what makes Lindsey Automotive the first choice for all your auto services.

If you're not satisfied with your current facility, talk to us; we're Bosch approved!
